The Baronial Exchequer shall compare the ledger to the actual income and expenses of the Sponsored Branch to determine the Sponsored Branch Exchequer's knowledge of correct procedure. If no other election has been specified by the Sponsored Branch, funds held in the Barony account will revert to the general fund in case the Sponsored Branch is dissolved.

B) As applicable, for the three months prior to an event, the Sponsored Branch's Autocrat will make progress reports to the Baronial Council.

5) Baronial Officials are expected to act as mentors to their analogues in the Sponsored Branch. Any Sponsored Branch officer who does not have a Baronial analogue shall look to the Baronial Seneschal(e) to fulfill that role (q.v., III.Note).

SECTION VIII -- AUTOCRATS AND EVENTS

1) For the Barony to sponsor an event, a written proposal (with copies to the Seneschal(e), Chronicler, and Coronet) must be submitted to, and approved by, the Council. The proposal must include: nature of event, date, time, place, general budget, names of proposed Autocrat, Contingency Deputy, and any consulting autocrat, primary crew, and full and complete contact information.

A) Timelines for event submissions to Council are determined by the size and type of event:

- Small (fewer than 100 people) -- 2-4 months before the event
- Medium (100-300 people) -- 4-6 months before the event
- Large (over 300 people) -- 8-10 months before the event

B) The Coronet, Seneschal(e), and Exchequer are precluded from applying for the positions of Autocrat and Consulting Autocrat for Baronial Events due to inherent duties already assumed for any Baronial Event.

Note: These guidelines may be waived at Council's discretion in extenuating circumstances; however, this may make for an unsuccessful event.

2) Autocrats or their Contingency Deputy are required to attend the three Council meetings, as applicable, prior to the event for which the Autocrat has responsibility. Reports shall be presented monthly from the time of acceptance of the proposal until event closure.

A) Autocrats are to work with Officials to ensure that event-related duties are fulfilled.

B) As applicable, Officials who have duties at upcoming events are required to attend the last two Council meetings prior to that event. If the Official cannot attend, an informed deputy may be delegated to attend the meetings in stead.

C) Autocrats are to ensure that any event-related needs are fulfilled, including but not necessarily limited to:

- i) Maintaining a paid membership until the event is officially closed.
- ii) Creating copy for publication which includes directions and all pertinent contact information for the Autocrat and any other necessary assistants, so that anyone is able to contact the autocratting staff should they have special needs or questions.
- iii) Having the Seneschal(e) approve all marketing publications related to the event prior to dissemination.
- iv) Getting event copy to Kingdom Calendar, The Plume editor, and other appropriate newsletters for publication. Web-based publications should be provided to the Web Minister who shall publish it to the Baronial website where it shall become considered as the official electronic event copy.
- v) Getting event copy to Kingdom Calendar, and appropriate newsletters, for publication after it has been approved by the Seneschal(e). Event copy must be submitted to The Plume editor and the Web Minister for publication.
- vi) Posting any necessary signs for visual assistance to the site.
- vii) Ensuring appropriate and sufficient waivers and sign-in sheets are provided and used, and submitting them to the Seneschal(e).

D) Autocrats may use items from the Baronial culinary holdings for an event which includes a feast, or for an event-related food vendor which is raising funds for a specific purpose (e.g., general Baronial fundraiser, Kingdom Travel Fund). In order to recover property depreciation, should autocrats use the holdings, they will 'rent' the items.

- i) Rental fees will be calculated as part of the expenses of an event, or for the use of the event related food vendor.
- ii) The cost for rental of items from the Baronial Culinary Holdings will be assessed based on site attendance (rather than only those eating), or on gross sales.
 - a) The rental fee of Baronial Culinary Holdings for a full feast will be $0.25 per attendee.
 - b) The rental fee of Baronial Culinary Holdings for a potluck feast will be $0.10 per attendee.

c) The rental fee of Baronial Culinary Holdings for an event related food vendor will be 5% of its gross sales.

E) Where applicable, Autocrats shall establish a refund policy for individuals and merchants for their event(s) which shall be approved by the Seneschal(e) and the Exchequer and will be included in both print and electronic event copy.

3) Officials and Autocrats shall give a closing report on an event at the Council meeting immediately following the event, barring circumstances beyond their control. If this Council meeting is the week after the event, the autocrat may, instead, first file a preliminary report at the Council meeting immediately following the event, provide the moneys and a draft financial report to the Chancellor of the Exchequer submit sign-in sheets and waivers to the Seneschal(e), and then present the closing report at the next Council meeting.

A) An event will not be considered closed until:

- i) Sign-in sheets and waivers are submitted to the Seneschal(e).
- ii) A financial report has been submitted to the Chancellor of the Exchequer (within 30 days).
- iii) all Baronial equipment has been returned to the satisfaction of the Chamberlain and the Seneschal(e)

4) Autocrats shall appoint a Contingency Deputy who shall be kept fully informed of the details of the event. Autocrats may appoint additional deputies as needed for the running of an event.

5) If a person approved as an autocrat has insufficient experience in running events (e.g., by size), or is new to the area, a Consulting Autocrat may be required by the Council. Sponsored Branch Autocrats must have a Consulting Autocrat. (q.v., VII.3.A)

Note: The Council has the right to require an Autocrat to have a Consulting Autocrat for an event. The Council may not require an Autocrat to use a specific Consulting Autocrat, but it may require the Autocrat to choose a different Consulting Autocrat more acceptable to the Council.

6) It is recommended that no Autocrat have more than one event open at a time.

7) It is recommended that no Autocrat be in charge of the same event for more than two consecutive years.

8) Officials and Baronial Champions having office-related obligations at a Baronial Event are not required to pay a site fee, as determined by the Autocrat, for that event. After such determination, the Autocrat will provide a list of names for those people receiving complimentary admission to the site (i.e., a "comp list") to Council prior to the event and to the event gate. This list will include the person's name, and office or obligation to the event.

Note: The Coronets of Stromgard and Terra Pomaria are always given complimentary admission. (q.v., XIII.4)

A) Persons not amongst those on the list of complimentary admissions will need to pay the site fee, and will be refunded at a later time if appropriate.

B) Autocrats shall not retroactively give complimentary admission to an event once the event is closed.

Note: It is important to remember that events are held for many reasons; to have fun, to teach, to show what we can do, to make money. An event does not need to meet all of these criteria in order to be successful.

Note B: If the Barony of Three Mountains should be dissolved, all accounts shall be given to its successor branch, or should there be no successor, to the Kingdom general fund. Sponsored Branch funds held in the Barony accounts will also be given to the successor branch, or should there be no successor, to the Kingdom general fund.

1) All financial decisions are made by consensus of the populace in the Baronial Council.

A) When expenditures are approved, the minutes of the Council meeting will document the transfer. For example, "$110 was approved to build carts to carry the Eric stakes." This is also true for advances given to autocrats or other purposes.

B) When an advance is approved for goods or services, the person given the advance is responsible for ensuring that a receipt describing the goods purchased or service performed is provided to the Exchequer upon completion of the project or event.

2) To ease reporting, deposits shall be divided so that it is clear exactly where the revenue came from. For example, gate receipts shall be deposited separately from "pun tax."

A) The Exchequer shall keep a log of all receipts of funds to the Barony. The form of the log shall be up to the Exchequer but it will include: date, source of funds (e.g., event receipts, book sales, newsletter subscriptions, etc.), amount and initials of at least the Exchequer and the person turning over the funds. D) Whenever the Exchequer is carrying cash at an event, the Exchequer shall be accompanied by an escort. This escort shall accompany the Exchequer to the bank for deposits, if a deposit is made during an event.

4) Officers

B) If there are expenditures over and above the budget amount for that office, the officer shall bring the issue to Council for approval.

5) Neighboring Branch Nobility
