

One Last Look...

The morning after: a group of pilgrims, attracted by the sound of Gregorian chants find a moment of contemplation in the cathedral.

THANK YOU!

It's almost too much to believe, but I have actually had more donations toward the Chartres Project – To the point that we have nearly paid off the entire debt for materials. Here is living proof that the “dream” is not just a cliché. My special thanks to the following kind souls...

Joseph and Cynthia Urbano
Trevor S. Clemons
Deborah Kay Jarrell
Lady Jehanne du May (Second Donation)
Linda Duvall (Baroness Claire Fitzwilliam, O.P.)
Meg McIntyre (Aedythe of Warwick)

And thanks for the following topic suggestions. Anybody want to write one of these?

Roofing materials
Cisterns, running water
Period Ceilings
Fabric Decorations, Hangings
Sources for Period Hardware
More late-period stuff
More Period Lighting
Boxes and Chairs that Break Down
More Portable Buildings
Period Wagons, Carts, Caravans